Other Questions to Consider:

How does your commitment to Christ affect your choices of music?

When you are having a bad day, what kind of music do you listen to? Is it music that turns your attention back to Jesus?

What is the worst song (lyrically) that you have listened to? What makes it so bad?

What is the best song (lyrically) that you have listened to? What makes it so good?

How much influence does music have on the lifestyle of students in your school?

Does the music that you listen to promote a sinful or Godly lifestyle?

What would it take for you to choose to listen to God honoring music only?

Do you memorize Scripture as much as you memorize the latest songs? If we can listen half-listen to a song 3-4 times and have the whole thing memorized, if you sat down and actually worked at memorizing God's word, how many verses do you think you could memorize?
